companied by a negro boy, for the purpose did not return to dinner, fears were enter-tained concerning him. He was found in the afternoon, lying near the road, with his face dreadfully mangled, and his gun lying beside him empty. The negro boy confessed that he had accidentally shot him. He was 12 or 18 years old.—Colleton Sun. HAVE A HOME .- Young men have lately written to us, asking : "Shall we marry, possessing only small means?" If the means are adequate to meet the wants of the man and the future wife, why not? But they should be sufficient for this, else the most painful consequences may ensue. Moderate means are ample for the real necessaries of life, which ought to satisfy human beings, as far as externals are concerned; insuring social and domestic enjoyment; meeting the real purpose of existence-their own advancement and that of others. But have enough for this, have a home. Have a home, young man, before you have a wife. At least have means to provide one .-You have no business with an Eve till there is a paradise to place her in. Secure the garden, and the Eve will follow. If you are unable to provide an Eden, who ought to trust you with an Eve? Sacred as we regard love, we do not believe in divorcing it from common sense. This experiment is generally fatal to both happiness and respectability. Wake from mere dreams of life, exert your energies, procure means by some kind of honest labor, secure a home, then ask your own heart, and the girl phrenologically best adapted to you, the question: "Shall I marry?"—Life Illustrated LAST OF THE CATAWBAS.—The Lancaster Ledger says: "The remnant of the once powerful tribe of Catawbas was a subject of notice by the Grand Jury. They recommended that the Legislature adopt measures for the removal of these poor Indians from their native homes, that they may be no longer a bur-then and expense to christian civilization."

REMEMBER that every person, however low, has rights and feelings. In all contentions let peace be rather your object than triumph. Value triumph only as the means of peace. Do not try to frighten children and inferiors by passion; it does more harm to your own character than it does good to them; the same thing is better done by firmness and peace. thing is better done by firmness and persua-sion. Find fault, when you must find fault, in private, if possible; and sometime after the offence, rather than at that time. The blamed are less inclined to resist, when they are blamed without witnesses; both parties are calmer, and the accused party is struck with the forbearance of the accuser, who has seen the fault, and watched for a private and proper time for mentioning it. "What do you propose to take for your cold?" said a lady to a succeing gentleman. " Jh, I'll sell very cheap; I won't higgle about the price at all."
